

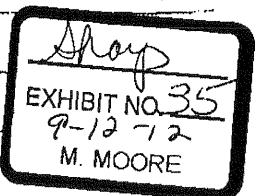

EXHIBIT 4

Mr. McDowell asked [REDACTED] if she could take her belt off. Said that she thought it was stupid that she has to take her belt off (Confederate but gays could wear rainbow shirts). Said that he thought that's what started the whole argument. Said that he Catholic so by them wearing rainbow shirts it was discrimination. He Said if [REDACTED] really was Catholic [REDACTED] would go to a Catholic School.
He then continued arguing about that and ended with if [REDACTED] didn't like gays [REDACTED] could leave his room, so [REDACTED] picked up [REDACTED] bag and left.

[REDACTED] 10/21/10

Mr. McFave M asked if I wanted to leave the school I said no he left off. I then told him I could take my belt off (Confederate belt) cause I could wear rainbow shirts. flag I said that's what started the (VASE Argument). I Said that im Catholic so by their argument, i can't Shirts it was discriminated. He Said if I took off my belt he would let me go to the bathroom. I did.
He then asked if I wanted to leave the school and ended with if I didn't like gays I could have his room, so I picked up my bag and left.

Daniel Glawach 10/21/10

